Coach Devin!

Devin Day has spent his entire adult life on a volleyball court. He has been a sand player since college and was the organizer for an NCAA club team at the university he attended. Later, he became a sand coach and tournament organizer. Devin has experience personally as a USAV player for 6 years and also coached a 10u boys team during that time. Devin's indoor coaching experience also includes 3 years as an assistant varsity coach with a highly successful high school team and two years as an assistant coach at the junior college level. Devin is married to his beautiful wife, Rindala, and they have a blended family including 6 children. Devin is excited to be a part of CPVC and wants to help boys and girls in the community develop an interest in the sport and take their game to a higher level.
