

Meet
Coach Ray!

Ray Barwick thoroughly enjoys the sport of volleyball and helping young people grow and improve their skills. He has played in sand volleyball leagues for many years. His coaching experience includes assistant coach for a very successful local high school varsity team, head coach and assistant coach at a junior volleyball club and one year as a college assistant coach at the NJCAA level. Ray is also a full-time paramedic and enjoys being on the tech team at his church.